Rubber Radio

This funky little AM-FM radio never misses a beat and neither will you when you bring it along to the beach, the park—wherever you go. It's completely encased in a protective rubber coating, so you never have to worry about it. And it's small enough to stash in your pocket or backpack. Winner of the prestigious Design Award from this year's New York gift show. Get it in blue or lime. Just get it! 4-AA batteries. 5" x 1-1/2". Model number LA42. $00.00. With giftwrap $00.00.
